SUBJ: Weekly Wrap Up, May 1st

Here's this week's wrap up of communications across the System Offices.

Remote Work Update

Although today, May 1, is the date we thought would mark the end of our time working remotely, we ask everyone to keep doing what you are doing...if you are working on-site, keep working on-site; if you are working at home, keep working at home. We'll have more information in the next week or two.
